A. COMMITMENT

The University of Alabama (“the University” or “UA”) is committed to providing an environment free from sexual misconduct which, among other things identified in section C.1. below, includes gender-based assault, harassment, exploitation, dating and domestic violence, stalking, as well as discrimination based on sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression, and related retaliation (collectively referred to as Prohibited Conduct). The University expects individuals who live, work, teach, study within, or visit this community to contribute positively to the environment and refrain from behaviors that threaten the freedom or respect that every member of our community deserves. Individuals who are found to be in violation of this Policy will be subject to corrective action up to and including termination from employment or expulsion from the University.

Among other things, this Policy defines Prohibited Conduct, prohibits related retaliation, provides reporting requirements for designated University employees, identifies reporting procedures for individuals who have knowledge of an alleged violation, explains the difference between a Title IX investigation and a criminal investigation, identifies the UA offices to whom a Complainant may report potential violations in confidence to obtain support services without an investigation, explains University accommodations, interim measures and support services, sets out procedures for addressing potential Prohibited Conduct, and details the University’s comprehensive prevention, education, and awareness plan.

B. AMNESTY FOR PERSONAL INGESTION OF ALCOHOL OR OTHER DRUGS

The University of Alabama community views the safety of our students as a top priority. A student who is under the influence of alcohol or drugs at the time of an incident should not be reluctant to seek assistance for that reason. The University will not pursue disciplinary violations against a student (or against a witness) for their improper use of alcohol or drugs (e.g., underage drinking) if the student is making a good faith report of Prohibited Conduct. In addition, the law enforcement authorities in Tuscaloosa County have a practice of not pursuing charges for improper use of alcohol or drugs against a victim of sexual assault. The Title IX Coordinator (or designee) may, however, refer a student to substance abuse counseling depending on the circumstances of the individual situation. Thus, for purposes of this Policy, as applied to University of Alabama students, individuals who report potential Prohibited Conduct or participate in an investigation of Prohibited Conduct and reveal a potential violation of UA policy relating to drug or alcohol use may not be sanctioned for such violations.

C. RELEVANT DEFINITIONS

1. Prohibited Conduct Defined

For purposes of this Policy, conduct that is deemed, by a preponderance of the evidence (which means more likely than not the alleged conduct occurred) to be gender-based and meet the definitions of any of the types of Prohibited Conduct identified in the chart below (whether defined by UA policy, or by state (AL) or federal (FED) criminal laws, as amended from time to time), constitutes a violation of this Policy. A person whose gender-based conduct violates the federal or state criminal statutes as established by a preponderance of the evidence need not be criminally charged or convicted for their conduct to be deemed a violation of this Policy. In addition, to the extent federal or state criminal laws addressing gender-based conduct that could be deemed Prohibited Conduct are added or amended, it will be considered a violation of this Policy if an individual engages in such conduct (as proven by a preponderance of the evidence), even if the definitions below have not been updated to reflect the most recent federal or state language.

AL: First Degree Domestic Violence - ALA. CODE § 13A-6-130(a)
A person commits the crime of domestic violence in the first degree if the person commits the crime of assault in the first degree pursuant to Section 13A-6-20 or aggravated stalking pursuant to Section 13A-6-91, and the victim is a current or former spouse, parent, child, any person with whom the defendant has a child in common, a present or former household member, or a person who has or had a dating or engagement relationship with the defendant.

AL: Second Degree Domestic Violence - ALA. CODE § 13A-6-131(a)
A person commits the crime of domestic violence in the second degree if the person commits the crime of assault in the second degree pursuant to Section 13A-6-21; the crime of intimidating a witness pursuant to Section 13A-10-123; the crime of stalking pursuant to Section 13A-6-90; the crime of burglary in the second or third degree pursuant to Sections 13A-7-6 and 13A-7-7; or the crime of criminal mischief in the first degree pursuant to Section 13A-7-21 and the victim is a current or former spouse, parent, child, any person with
The term “consent” used when describing different types of prohibited acts of sexual misconduct under UA's Sexual Misconduct Policy (such as sexual assault) means a clear willingness to participate in the sexual act (e.g., clear communication through words or actions). Consent to a sexual act is not freely given if the individual is not able to give proper consent, or if consent is obtained by force, threats, deception, or coercion. A lack of resistance does not grant consent. Previous consent does not grant consent to future sexual acts. Consent can be withdrawn at any time during a sexual act. Inability to give consent may include, but is not limited to, situations where an individual is:

- Incapacitated due to alcohol, drugs, or other substances including, but not limited to, prescription medication.
Sexual Assault/Sexual Contact/Sexual Exploitation/Sodomy & Other Sexual Offenses

Sexual assault is defined as any form of sexual penetration, no matter how slight, or attempted sexual penetration occurring without the consent of all parties involved and includes:

- Sexual intercourse committed by physical force, coercion, threat or intimidation, actual or implied, by a person or persons known or unknown to the victim; or
- Attempted sexual intercourse or physical force of a threatening nature expressed or implied that places a person in fear of immediate death or physical injury by a person or persons known or unknown to the victim.

Sexual contact means any touching of the sexual or other intimate parts of a person that is done for the purpose of gratifying the sexual desire of either party or for the purpose of harassing, intimidating, or threatening a person.

Sexual exploitation is taking non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for one’s own advantage or benefit or to benefit a person other than the one being exploited.

Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to:

- Causing or attempting to cause the incapacitation of another individual for sexual purposes;
- Electronically recording, photographing, or transmitting sexual sounds or images of another individual against that person’s will or without their consent;
- Allowing a third-party to observe sexual acts without all parties’ consent;
- Engaging in voyeurism; or
- Knowingly transmitting a sexually transmitted disease/infection or HIV to another individual.

Sex offenses are any sexual act directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent. Sexual Assault is an offense that meets the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape (see FED definitions below) 34 C.F.R. § 668.46(a).

Alabama law includes the following, among others, in its sexual offenses category: rape, sodomy, sexual misconduct, sexual torture, sexual abuse, indecent exposure, enticing a child to enter vehicle, house, etc. for immoral purposes, sexual abuse of a child less than 12 years old. The following are definitions that apply to the Alabama sexual offense statutes (some of which are set forth below):

SEXUAL INTERCOURSE. Such term has its ordinary meaning and occurs upon any penetration, however slight; emission is not required.

DEVIATE SEXUAL INTERCOURSE. Any act of sexual gratification between persons not married to each other involving the sex organs of one person and the mouth or anus of another.

SEXUAL CONTACT. Any touching of the sexual or other intimate parts of a person not married to the actor, done for the purpose of gratifying the sexual desire of either party.

MENTALLY DEFECTIVE. Such term means that a person suffers from a mental disease or defect which renders him incapable of appraising the nature of his conduct.

MENTALLY INCAPACITATED. Such term means that a person is rendered temporarily incapable of appraising or controlling his conduct owing to the influence of a narcotic or intoxicating substance administered to him without his consent, or to any other incapacitating act committed upon him without his consent.

PHYSICALLY HELPLESS. Such term means that a person is unconscious or for any other reason is physically unable to communicate unwillingness to an act.

FORCIBLE COMPULSION. Physical force that overcomes earnest resistance or a threat, express or implied, that places a person in fear of immediate death or serious physical injury to himself or another person.

In Alabama, it is illegal for an adult (someone 18 or older) to have sex with a minor (someone younger than 16), even if the sex is consensual. See AL definition of consent.
SEXUAL HARASSMENT

UA

Sexual harassment is abusive or hostile conduct that is directed to an individual's sex (includes sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression) and which, because of its severity or pervasiveness, unreasonably interferes with an individual's work or academic performance or creates a hostile or abusive work or learning environment for that individual's work, education, or participation in a University activity. Harassment is typically based on stereotyped prejudices and includes, but is not limited to, slurs, jokes, objectionable epithets, or other verbal, graphic, or physical conduct that demeans, insults, or intimidates an individual because of their sex (includes sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression).

Sexual harassment includes unwelcome advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when (1) submission to such conduct is made, either explicitly or implicitly, a term or condition of employment or academic standing; (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment or academic decisions; or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's performance as an employee or student or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working or learning environment. Examples of sexual harassment may include, but are not limited to:

- Sexually explicit statements (can be verbal or written);
- Unwanted touching;
- Unwanted staring in a sexual manner;
- Displaying of sexually graphic materials;
- Inappropriate references to gender;
- Sexual exploitation;
- Offers for or demands of sexual activity in exchange for perceived benefits; or
- Public lewdness.

FED

Sexual harassment is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature. It includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Sexual violence is a form of sexual harassment. Gender-based harassment, which may include acts of verbal, nonverbal, or physical aggression, intimidation, or hostility based on sex or sex-stereotyping, even if those acts do not involve conduct of a sexual nature, is also prohibited. When a student sexually harasses another student, the harassing conduct creates a hostile environment if the conduct is sufficiently serious that it interferes with or limits a student's ability to participate in or benefit from the school's program. The more severe the conduct, the less need there is to show a repetitive series of incidents to prove a hostile environment, particularly if the harassment is physical. Indeed, a single or isolated incident of sexual harassment may create a hostile environment if the incident is sufficiently severe. See April 4, 2011 Dear Colleague Letter, http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/letters/colleague-201104.pdf; and Revised Sexual Harassment Guidance: Harassment of Students by School Employees, Other Students or Third Parties (January, 2001), https://www2.ed.gov/offices/OCR/archives/pdf/shguide.pdf.

Complainant—An individual who is reported to be or alleges that they were the victim of an offense that violates this Policy.

Employee—An employee is an individual who receives compensation for work or services for which the University has the right (whether or not it exercises the right) to supervise and control the manner of performance as well as the result of the work or service. For purposes of this Policy, University faculty, staff, and student employees are considered “employees.” Volunteers and independent contractors are not considered “employees.”

Investigator—An investigator is the Title IX Coordinator or the Coordinator’s designee that takes the lead in an investigation of any complaint involving a potential violation of this Policy. One or more investigators may be assigned to investigate each complaint. A complaint investigation involving a student Respondent may include input/assistance from the Office of Student Conduct. A complaint investigation involving a faculty/staff Respondent may include input/assistance from a designated harassment resource office and/or human resource partners.

Ongoing Prevention and Awareness Campaigns—Programming, initiatives, and strategies that are sustained over time and focus on increasing understanding of topics relevant to and skills for addressing dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking, using a range of strategies with audiences throughout the University. Ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns are offered by several departments on campus and are described in more detail in section L.

Primary Prevention Programs—Programming, initiatives, and strategies informed by research or assessed for value, effectiveness, or outcome that are intended to prevent sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking before they occur through the promotion of positive and healthy behaviors that foster healthy, mutually respectful relationships and sexuality, encourage safe bystander intervention, and seek to change behavior and social norms in healthy and safe directions. Primary prevention programs are provided to all new students and employees and are described in more detail in section L. For students, Haven online training is the primary prevention program.

Proceeding—All activities related to a non-criminal resolution of an institutional disciplinary complaint including, but not limited to, fact-finding investigations, formal or informal meetings, and hearings. “Proceeding” does not include communications and meetings between officials and complainants concerning accommodations or protective measures to be provided to a complainant.

Risk Reduction—Options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, and to increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety and to help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence.

Responsible Reporting Official—Responsible Reporting Officials include employees, acting in their official University capacities, in the Office of the Title IX Coordinator, Office of Student Conduct, UAPD, the Designated Harassment Resource Persons, Resident Advisors and Community Directors in Housing and Residential Communities,2 Director of Equal Opportunity Programs/University Compliance Officer3 and Human Resources

2 Resident Advisors and Community Directors may be Responsible Reporting Officials if they receive reports of sexual misconduct in their official capacity from students in their assigned areas of responsibility, if they would be required under HRC guidelines to report. If a report of this nature is received, it will be reported to the Student Affairs Designated Harassment Officer or directly to the Title IX Office.

Designated Responsible Reporting Officials—A subset of Responsible Reporting Officials, and includes the Designated Harassment Resource Persons, Director of Equal Opportunity Programs/University Compliance Officer, and employees in the Office of the Title IX Coordinator, Office of Student Conduct, and UAPD. Faculty members, graduate teaching or research assistants, and undergraduate student employees are not generally considered Responsible Reporting Officials.

Respondent—An individual who has been accused of an offense under this Policy or is reported to have violated this Policy.

Student—A student is anyone admitted to the University and registered for, taking, or pursuing undergraduate, graduate, or professional studies or courses at the University, both full-time and part-time, as well as persons attending classes on campus or off-campus. Persons who are not officially enrolled for a particular term but who have a continuing relationship with the University as well as persons participating in orientation are considered “students.”

D. TITLE IX COORDINATOR

The University has a designated Title IX Coordinator who shall oversee implementation and enforcement of this Policy, compliance with applicable rules and regulations, and coordination of communications between campus and community partners. Beth Howard, the Title IX Coordinator, may be reached at (205) 348-5496. The Title IX Coordinator’s office is currently located in 152A Rose Administration Building (http://titleix.ua.edu/).

E. JURISDICTION (TO WHOM AND WHERE POLICY APPLIES)

This Policy applies to:

- All students and employees regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation and regardless of where the alleged violation occurred (on campus or off-campus, if it affects the campus or the access to education of a student);
- All acts of Prohibited Conduct, including those involving non-students or non-employees, that occur on campus or at any location involving a University-sponsored activity or event; and,
- On-line behavior and social media that may affect the educational experience and violate this Policy.

F. REPORTING PROCEDURES, CONFIDENTIALITY, AND RIGHTS

The University of Alabama takes allegations of Prohibited Conduct very seriously and is committed to taking immediate action to combat Prohibited Conduct, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects. The University will address all allegations of Prohibited Conduct with a prompt, thorough, and impartial inquiry to determine what occurred and to take appropriate steps to resolve the situation and determine an equitable resolution.

Individuals who believe they are targets of potential Prohibited Conduct in their working or academic environments are not required, but are encouraged, when they feel it is appropriate and no safety risk is posed, to respond to the Respondent directly by objecting and by requesting that the unwelcome behavior stop. In more serious instances of Prohibited Conduct (such as sexual assault offenses, intimate partner violence, dating or domestic violence, or stalking) or when direct objections and requests have no effect or would create a safety risk, individuals are encouraged to seek immediate assistance from law enforcement or the designated University official as discussed below.

1. Reporting Procedures

a. Mandatory Reporting of Child Abuse to UAPD

For child protection purposes, a child is any person under 18 years of age. A freshman student, a “dual enrolled” high school student, or a summer camp participant, among others, may fall into the category of a “child.” Alabama law imposes a mandatory reporting duty of known or suspected child abuse on certain individuals, including all University employees, who must report to The University of Alabama Police Department (UAPD). University policy implementing the law also encourages students, volunteers, and representatives as well as third-party vendors and their employees, representatives, or volunteers that contract for use of University facilities with responsibilities that involve interaction with children to report (orally and then in written form) known or suspected child abuse to UAPD. Sexual abuse, which is one element of the more comprehensive term “abuse” under the Alabama law, includes actual or attempted rape, molestation, sexual exploitation, etc. A more complete statement of University Child Protection policy may be found at http://policies.ua.edu/childprotection.html.

b. Prompt Reporting

The University strongly encourages individuals to report alleged incidents of Prohibited Conduct or related retaliation to a Responsible Reporting Official and to law enforcement agencies when appropriate. Prompt reporting of alleged Prohibited Conduct allows the University to take steps toward ending the discrimination, preventing its recurrence, and remediating its effects. With regard to criminal investigations, preservation of the evidence (such as clothing, bodily fluids, and other physical evidence) will strengthen the investigations, which may result in a greater likelihood of holding the accused accountable. A delay in reporting may also limit the University’s ability to address inappropriate behavior, and Respondent(s) and/or pertinent witnesses may no longer be affiliated with the University. There is no time limit on reporting or filing complaints of violations of this Policy; however, as noted above, prompt reporting is encouraged. Unreasonable delays in reporting may affect the investigation and evaluation of the report.

c. Report to Responsible Reporting Officials

In order to take appropriate action, the University must have notice of alleged Prohibited Conduct or related retaliation. Any individual who believes they have experienced or witnessed Prohibited Conduct or related retaliation is encouraged to report the behavior to a Responsible Reporting Official, who will notify the Title IX Coordinator. When a Responsible Reporting Official knows or reasonably should know of the alleged offense, the University is deemed to have notice of the alleged incident and will take appropriate action, including measures aimed at ending the inappropriate conduct, preventing its recurrence, and remediating its effects.

When a Complainant contacts a Responsible Reporting Official, that official shall make a reasonable effort to advise the Complainant or other reporting party about (1) the Responsible Reporting Official’s duty to inform the Title IX Coordinator about the incident (e.g., the names of the individuals involved; the time, place, and location; etc.), (2) the option of the Complainant or other reporting party to request that the Respondent not be informed of the identity of the Complainant (but that request may limit the University’s ability to end the inappropriate conduct, prevent its recurrence, and remediate its effects), and (3) the fact that the Complainant or other reporting individual may share the information on a strictly confidential basis with professional mental health counselors on campus or the Women and Gender Resource Center, without the Title IX Coordinator being informed of the individual’s identity.

- Other Employees, Students & Visitors: Reports to all other University employees, including faculty, graduate teaching and research assistants and other student employees (other than resident advisors. See footnote 2) and those not in a senior management role with overall responsibility for the daily operations of an academic, support or operational unit, are not considered reports to Responsible Reporting Officials and, therefore, the University is not deemed to have official notice. The same is true with respect to students and visitors, who, likewise, are not considered Responsible Reporting Officials. These employees, students, and visitors, however, are encouraged to advise the Complainant of the role of the Designated Responsible Reporting Officials and/or strictly confidential reporting channels and/or are encouraged to share information with the Title IX Coordinator. Individuals with a recognized confidentiality privilege (see more information regarding strictly confidential reporting in Section F.2.a. herein) are not Responsible Reporting Officials and are not required to report to the Title IX Coordinator. However, these individuals are encouraged, in appropriate circumstances, to recommend that the Complainant contact the Title IX office or other Responsible Reporting Official.

d. Contact Information for UAPD and Designated Responsible Reporting Officials

Contact information for Designated Responsible Reporting Officials and UAPD for students, employees, and campus visitors can be found below and on the Title IX website at www.titleix.ua.edu/report-a-violation.html.

i. Reporting to Law Enforcement: The University encourages individuals to immediately report acts or threats of sexual assault, intimate partner (dating/domestic) violence, sexual exploitation, stalking, or any dangerous behavior to the University of Alabama Police Department (UAPD) or local police authorities. All law enforcement agencies can be contacted by calling Emergency 911. UAPD may be contacted at 1110 Jackson Ave., Tuscaloosa, AL 35487; www.police.ua.edu; (205) 348-5454.

With respect to reports occurring in Gadsden at the UA Gadsden Center, individuals should contact Emergency 911 or the Gadsden Police Department at 90 Broad St., Gadsden, AL 35901, (256) 549-4578.

8 It is important to note that a Complainant is never required to report either to a confidential reporting office/individual or to a Responsible Reporting Official.
Designated Responsible Reporting Officials are available to assist a Complainant with reporting to UAPD or local law enforcement; however, a Complainant is not required to report to law enforcement. The University may not in all cases receive notice of an alleged incident following a report to local law enforcement (e.g., the Tuscaloosa Police Department, the Northport Police Department, or the Tuscaloosa County Sheriff’s Office). Therefore, to enable the University to assist a Complainant with interim accommodations/measures and support services, individuals who have contacted law enforcement are encouraged to also report to a Designated Responsible Reporting Official.

ii. Reporting to Designated Responsible Reporting Officials: In addition to the Title IX website identified above, contact information for Designated Responsible Reporting Officials is listed below:

- The Title IX Coordinator and investigators in the Title IX office can receive all complaints of Prohibited Conduct. Contact information for the Title IX Coordinator is:

  Beth Howard
  (205) 348-5496
  gbhoward@ua.edu
  www.titleix.ua.edu

- The Office of Student Conduct professional staff can receive complaints of Prohibited Conduct when the Respondent is a University student. Contact information for the Office of Student Conduct is available at http://www.sc.ua.edu/contact.cfm.

- Designated Harassment Resource Persons are designated by each college and other administrative units and can receive any complaint of Prohibited Conduct. A current list of these officials can be found at http://cop.ua.edu/persons.html, also accessible from the Title IX website, at http://titleix.ua.edu/report-a-violation.html.

- Human Resources Partners can also receive complaints of Prohibited Conduct involving a University staff or student employee. A current list of HR Partners and their contact information is located at http://hr.ua.edu/hr-partners.

2. Confidentiality/Privacy

Conversations with Responsible Reporting Officials are kept as private as possible and shared only on a need to know basis in order to assist in the active review, investigation, or resolution of the report and related issues. This privacy extends to both the Complainant and other necessary parties. The University will maintain as private any accommodations or interim measures provided to the Complainant or necessary parties if maintaining such confidentiality will not impair the ability of the University to provide the accommodations or protective measures. University employees assisting with a Title IX matter are expected to safeguard private information in accordance with applicable laws (including, but not limited to, FERPA, HIPAA, and other privacy laws). Complainants are advised that requests for confidentiality may limit the University’s efforts to end the inappropriate conduct, prevent its recurrence, and remediate its effects. However, information about incidents of alleged Prohibited Conduct must be shared with relevant administrators if the Title IX Coordinator determines that the University needs to take action to provide a safe and non-discriminatory environment for the entire campus community. Relevant factors that will be considered include, but are not limited to, credible evidence of Respondent’s prior Prohibited Conduct, risk of additional misconduct, and the use of a weapon. In all cases, the request for confidentiality by the person initiating the conversation is given full consideration.

a. Strictly Confidential Reporting: University employees who qualify for the confidentiality privilege by law will maintain strict confidentiality in all circumstances. These include (but are not necessarily limited to) all employees of the Women & Gender Resource Center (WGRC), the University Counseling Center, the Student Health Center, University Medical Center, the Psychology Clinic, the Autism Spectrum Disorders Clinic, and the University of Alabama School of Law clinics. These individuals are prohibited from breaking confidentiality unless (i) given permission to do so by the person who disclosed the information; (ii) there is an imminent threat of harm to self or others; (iii) the conduct involves suspected abuse of a person under the age of 18; or (iv) as otherwise required or permitted by law or court order. The University is not deemed to have notice of alleged Prohibited Conduct based on a report to these offices. A Complainant who wishes to receive accommodations and support measures, but who desires strict confidentiality should contact the WGRC Victim Advocate (see Section H below).

b. Confidential Clery Act Reporting. If a Complainant desires strict confidentiality and is certain they will not pursue criminal action, they are encouraged to contact WGRC, which has been designated by the University as the office to confidentially receive information for inclusion in crime statistics and assist Complainants in understanding options, including free counseling, exploring legal and judicial remedies, and procedures to report crimes on a voluntary, confidential basis for inclusion in UA’s crime statistics (without revealing personally identifiable information). Note: All verified and unverified confidential reports of sexual offenses that meet the Clery reporting criteria as determined by UAPD and that are made to the WGRC are included in UA campus crime statistics. Crimes reported to campus pastoral and other professional counselors or physicians or mental health professionals or others to whom a confidentiality privilege applies by law are not included unless the Complainant has chosen to report separately to a Campus Security Authority as defined by federal law.

c. Anonymous reports may be made via The Hazing and Harassment Hotline (205-348-HALT (4258)). Anonymous reports will be investigated based on the extent of information provided.

3. Rights of Complainants and Respondents

   In addition to all other rights conferred by this Policy, the parties have the following rights:

   a. Complainant’s Rights¹⁰

      Students or employees reporting potential sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking have the following rights:

      - To be informed of available options for making a report;
      - To be advised of the Complainant’s right to simultaneously file a criminal complaint and a Title IX complaint with UA and to be advised of the University’s prohibition on retaliation against an individual who exercises their rights under Title IX, Title VII, the Campus SaVE Act, or this Policy;
      - To decline to notify law enforcement authorities in cases of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking cases;
      - To be assisted by campus authorities, if requested, when reporting a crime to law enforcement;

To have equal access to educational programs and activities and interim measures, as appropriate, regardless of whether one decides to report to a Responsible Reporting Official or instead to someone who is required by law to maintain confidentiality;

- To receive information regarding University and community support resources (including, but not limited to, modification of academic, living, transportation, or working situations to avoid a hostile environment; and available health and mental health counseling, victim advocacy, safety planning, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid, and, if applicable, disability accommodations). If the Complainant requests such accommodations or protective measures and if they are reasonably available, they will be provided regardless of whether the Complainant chooses to report the crime to campus police or local law enforcement;

- To request from a WGRC Victim Advocate or the Title IX Coordinator that the University issue and enforce a no contact directive;

- To a thorough and impartial investigation;

- If a student, to be accompanied by a support person/advisor at all University proceedings relevant to the investigation and hearing process, subject to the limitations outlined herein;

- Subject to the limitations set forth herein, to be notified of significant actions and proceedings relevant to the University investigation and hearing process;

- To be notified of the appeal process and whether an appeal is available;

- To be notified in writing when final results become available (in crimes of violence or Title IX Prohibited Conduct cases); and

- To have access to published policies regarding Prohibited Conduct and University disciplinary procedures, including the possible range of sanctions.

b. Respondent’s Rights

- To a general notice of the allegations, or Code of Conduct charges (if applicable), an opportunity to respond to allegations, and access to policy statements regarding the investigation process and possible sanctions;

- To receive information regarding University and community support resources (including but not limited to modification of academic, living, transportation, or working situations to avoid a hostile environment, and available health counseling, mental health counseling, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, and student financial aid);

- To a thorough and impartial investigation;

- If a student, to be accompanied by a support person/advisor at all University proceedings relevant to the investigation and hearing process, subject to the limitations outlined herein (see footnote 11);

- Subject to the limitations set forth herein, to be notified of significant actions and proceedings relevant to the University investigation and hearing process;

11 Student Respondents and Complainants are all entitled to a support person or adviser (used interchangeably) during the process. However, that adviser may not be someone who has any direct knowledge of the allegations or who may be considered a witness during the investigation or hearing process. The support person may not speak on the Complainant's or Respondent's behalf or otherwise directly participate in any part of the investigation or hearing process. The support person's only role is to provide support, assistance, or consultation to the Complainant or Respondent. The support person may be legal counsel, but participation will be limited as stated herein. An adviser's failure to comply with the participation limitations outlined in this Policy and the Code of Student Conduct may cause conduct violations relating to an abuse of the conduct system to be asserted against the student they are advising. Any fees charged by the support person are the sole responsibility of the requesting party. When an employee is the Respondent, no support person/advisor may be present during any meeting under this Policy. If an employee is the Respondent and is also a student, no support person may be present during any meeting under this Policy except for sanctions being pursued through the Code of Student Conduct.
The University of Alabama Sexual Misconduct Policy

- To be notified of the appeal process and whether an appeal is available;
- To be notified in writing when final results become available (in crimes of violence or Title IX Prohibited Conduct cases); and
- To have access to published policies regarding Prohibited Conduct and University disciplinary procedures, including the possible range of sanctions.

G. PROCESSING OF A PROHIBITED CONDUCT COMPLAINT

Complaints of Prohibited Conduct will receive prompt attention. Complaints may be resolved through the informal or formal procedures described below, and appropriate action will be taken. The choice of where to begin rests with the Complainant. However, if the Title IX Coordinator determines that the matter is sufficiently grave because it seems to be part of a persistent pattern, because of the nature of the alleged offense, or because the Complainant seeks to have a sanction imposed, then the Designated Responsible Reporting Official and/or Title IX Coordinator will initiate a formal procedure, or take other appropriate action.

1. Informal Procedures

If the complaint is resolved informally, no record of the complaint will be entered in the Respondent’s personnel file or Office of Student Conduct record. However, the Title IX Coordinator’s Office will record the facts of the complaint and the resolution achieved. Options for informal resolution of a complaint include:

a. The Complainant is not required to but may, if they deem it appropriate and no safety risk is posed, attempt to resolve the matter directly with the Respondent and report back to the Designated Responsible Reporting Official;

b. The Designated Responsible Reporting Official may notify the Respondent of the complaint, paying appropriate attention to the need to maintain confidentiality. The Designated Responsible Reporting Official may take whatever steps short of disciplinary sanctions that they deem appropriate to effect an informal resolution acceptable to both parties;

c. The Complainant and Respondent may participate in a mediation. Mediation is not an option for allegations of sexual assault or intimate partner (dating/domestic) violence.

d. A party may end an informal proceeding at any time and move to the formal process outlined below.

2. Formal Investigation and Resolution Procedures

The University is committed to providing an investigation and conduct process that is prompt, fair, impartial, sensitive, supportive, and respectful to the rights and needs of all parties involved from the initial investigation to the final result. All meetings, discussions, and/or hearings that may occur as part of this formal process are closed to the general public.

a. Time Frames

Reports or complaints of Prohibited Conduct will be resolved as promptly as practicable after the report or complaint is made. Reasonable efforts will be made to arrive at an initial investigative finding as outlined herein (excluding hearings and appeals) within sixty (60) University business days following the receipt of a complaint, unless the University determines, in its sole discretion, that additional time is required. The University will provide the parties with periodic updates as it deems appropriate and with timely notice of meetings at which either or both the Complainant and Respondent may be present, and will provide both parties with timely and equal access to any information that is utilized in the decision-making process. If applicable policies provide for a hearing and one is properly requested, efforts will be made to hold the hearing within fourteen (14) University business days. Efforts will be made to hold any subsequent appeal that is promptly requested and available under an applicable policy within seven (7) University business days.

Extenuating circumstances could require the process to extend beyond the time frames described above, and the University will determine in its discretion if such circumstances exist and will notify the Complainant and Respondent in writing of the delay and the reason for the delay. Potential reasons for requiring additional time for resolution of the process include, but are not limited to, the complexity of the investigation, the severity and extent of the alleged conduct, University closings, breaks, holidays, summer terms, lack of access to witnesses, and factors outside the University’s control.

b. Equal Opportunity and Access To the extent not already provided for by existing disciplinary procedures, the Complainant and the Respondent are entitled to the same opportunities to be heard, to present evidence, and to access pertinent information during the investigation and conduct process as appropriate. Both the Complainant and Respondent will be updated on the status of the investigation and the outcome of any proceeding in an equitable manner. Accommodations and protective measures (as described in Section H below) may be taken to help protect the health and/or safety of the Complainant, Respondent, and/or witnesses.

c. Standard of Proof
The standard used to determine whether the Respondent is responsible for a Prohibited Conduct allegation is preponderance of the evidence, which means more likely than not the alleged conduct occurred and said conduct is in violation of this Policy.

12 This standard will apply to all charges, including any that incorporate or reference a state or federal criminal law.

d. Investigation Procedure
The investigation procedure followed for a formal complaint is determined by the role(s) of the Respondent’s association with the University:

i. Complaint against student Respondent
Complaints wherein a student is the Respondent are investigated by the Title IX office in conjunction with the Office of Student Conduct. All matters involving allegations of Prohibited Conduct by a student will be handled under the Code of Student Conduct in a manner consistent with the requirements, accommodations, procedures, and processes outlined in this Policy.

Hearings and appeals for complaints against a student involving Prohibited Conduct are discussed in detail below.

13 Certain terms used in this Policy may be defined in the Code of Student Conduct. To the extent there is an inconsistency between the substance of this Policy and the Code of Student Conduct related to the handling of conduct allegations covered by this Policy, the terms of this Policy will control.

ii. Complaint against faculty or staff Respondent
Complaints wherein a faculty or staff member is the Respondent are investigated by the Title IX Office, alone or in conjunction with designated harassment resource officers and/or, if applicable, human resource partners. Following the investigation, the Title IX Coordinator will provide a report to the applicable decision-making official. A conclusion by the Title IX Coordinator that Prohibited Conduct has occurred shall subject the Respondent to appropriate disciplinary sanctions. A conclusion that Prohibited Conduct has not occurred will in most cases end the process, unless the Complainant has the right to appeal, which only exists if the Respondent has an appeal right.\textsuperscript{14}

iii. \textit{Complaint against community member/third party/campus visitor Respondent}

The support of community members is vital to the success of the University. In instances where a complaint is received against a community member/third party/campus visitor (not student or employee), the Title IX Coordinator (or a designated investigator) will conduct an investigation and make a determination regarding whether the conduct in question is in violation of University policy or law. A conclusion by the Title IX Coordinator that Prohibited Conduct in violation of University policy or the law has occurred shall subject the community member/third party to disciplinary action. A conclusion by the Title IX Coordinator that Prohibited Conduct has not occurred will in most cases end the process, as no appeal right exists for the community member, and therefore does not exist for the Complainant in this situation.

c. \textit{Formal Investigation Process}

Upon receipt of notice of an alleged incident, the University will commence a thorough and impartial investigation. The investigation process is equitable with regard to the rights of the Complainant and Respondent. The goal of the investigation is to determine if conduct occurred in violation of University policy and, if so, to end the specific misconduct, prevent its recurrence, and remedy the effects on the Complainant and the University community.

- \textit{Discussion with Complainant}—The investigator(s) will conduct an initial meeting with the Complainant. During this initial meeting, the investigator(s) and the Complainant will discuss available University resources for support (accommodations and interim support measures) as well as the rights and options for pursuing a complaint under this Policy and for pursuing criminal charges. The investigator(s) will obtain as much information as possible during the initial meeting about the alleged incident, including witness names and any available evidence. The Complainant may, at any time during the investigation process, request that the investigation end and the University will try to accommodate this request. However, if the alleged conduct presents an issue of overall campus safety, the investigator(s) may continue with the investigation without the Complainant’s consent.

- \textit{Discussion with Respondent}—The allegations, subject to confidentiality concerns, will be discussed with the Respondent. The investigator(s) and the Respondent will discuss a Respondent’s rights as well as available University resources for support while the investigation is pending. The Respondent will be given the opportunity to respond to the allegations and offer evidence and/or potential witnesses. The Respondent is not required to make a statement or otherwise provide information relevant to the investigation. However, the investigation will continue and a decision regarding responsibility will be made based on the available statements and evidence.

- \textit{Other Evidence}—The investigator(s) will make reasonable attempts to contact and interview individuals who are identified as witnesses with information relevant to the allegations of Prohibited Conduct. The investigator(s) may elect not to interview witnesses whose sole purpose is to provide character information. The investigator(s) will make reasonable attempts to obtain other relevant evidence available from the parties, witnesses, or other University departments.

\textsuperscript{14}To the extent there is inconsistency between the substance of this Policy and the University’s Harassment Policy related to the handling of sexual harassment/hostile work environment allegations against University employees or community members or third parties, the terms of this Policy will control.
f. Hearing Procedures

i. Hearing Procedures for Students

- Accepting Responsibility—Following the investigation, the Title IX Coordinator (or designee), in consultation with the Office of Student Conduct, will issue a letter of findings that outlines whether the evidence more likely than not supports a finding of responsibility. If it is determined that the evidence supports a finding of responsibility, the letter will also include sanctions that the Conduct Administrator has approved, and the Respondent will be given an opportunity to accept responsibility and the accompanying sanctions or request a hearing. If responsibility is accepted, the Respondent or Complainant may appeal the sanctions within the time frames outlined in the Code of Student Conduct (see “Reviews/Appeals” below). If a formal hearing request or review is not timely made, the findings, including any accompanying sanctions, will be deemed final.

- Formal Hearing—The Complainant and Respondent both have the right to request a formal hearing before a Conduct Body as outlined herein, but must submit that request in writing to the Conduct Administrator within seven (7) calendar days of the issuance of the letter of findings. If the Respondent does not accept responsibility, the Respondent may request a formal hearing on the allegations before a Conduct Body as outlined herein. Also, if the Title IX Coordinator (or designee) is unable to conclude that substantial information exists to support a violation of this Policy, the Complainant will be notified in writing that the information obtained does not establish by a preponderance of evidence that the Respondent has violated the Policy. A finding that insufficient information exists to support a violation does not necessarily certify that Respondent was in compliance with the Policy. The Complainant will be advised that they have the right to request a formal hearing before a Conduct Body to independently determine if the Respondent violated the Policy. If seven (7) calendar days pass without a party properly requesting a formal hearing, the determinations contained in the letter of findings will be deemed final.

Student Conduct Body: For hearings involving allegations of Prohibited Conduct, the Conduct Administrator will appoint a Conduct Body composed of three faculty and/or staff members who have received specialized training. All members of the Conduct Body will receive annual training specifically concerning Prohibited Conduct allegations. The Conduct Administrator shall make inquiries of prospective panel members to ascertain whether a panel member has any conflict of interest or bias for or against the Complainant or Respondent that would prevent them from rendering an impartial decision, thereby precluding the panel member from serving. The identity of the Conduct Body members shall be provided to both the Respondent and the Complainant prior to the hearing. The Conduct Administrator will appoint one member of the panel to be the chairperson, who will be responsible for the conduct of the hearing, including certain questioning and maintaining proper decorum.

Student Hearing: The hearing will be scheduled and will proceed according to guidelines set forth in the Code of Student Conduct with the below modifications to ensure equity of both parties.

- Subject to the limitations stated in this Policy and the Code of Student Conduct, both the Complainant and the Respondent have the same opportunity to have present during the hearing any support person/adviser of their choice, at their own expense. The adviser, who may be an attorney, may privately consult with and advise the party but may not question witnesses, make statements, or otherwise directly participate in the proceedings. The chairperson of the Conduct Body may remove or dismiss a support person/adviser who becomes disruptive or who does not abide by the limitations on their participation.\textsuperscript{15}

- All evidence each party wishes to be considered by the Conduct Body should be presented to the investigator(s) during the investigation process. If evidence is not provided to the investigator during the investigation process, then presentation of those materials during the hearing is at the discretion of the chairperson and should only be allowed based on new information not known during the investigation process. Further, all materials that the Investigator, Complainant, or Respondent want the Conduct Body to consider must be submitted to the chairperson of the Conduct Body at least four (4) calendar days prior to the hearing. The chairperson will make copies of submitted materials available for inspection by the Complainant and Respondent at least three (3) calendar days prior to the hearing, consistent with FERPA or other regulation governing the disclosure of education records. Any materials submitted and/or discovered fewer than four (4) calendar days before the hearing may only be considered at the discretion of the chairperson of the Conduct Body.

- The Complainant and the Respondent have the right to present witnesses, subject to the right of cross-examination. Each party must provide a list of potential hearing witnesses to the chairperson of the Conduct Body at least four (4) calendar days prior to the hearing. The chairperson will provide the witness list(s) to all relevant student parties involved in the matter at least three (3) calendar days prior to the hearing. Any hearing witness presented must have been identified and accessible to the investigator during the investigation process. If a witness is not provided to the investigator during the investigation process, then presentation of that witness during the hearing is at the discretion of the chairperson and should only be allowed based on new information not known during the investigation process. Additionally, character witnesses will generally not be allowed, but a character witness may be permitted at the discretion of the chairperson.

- All questioning of parties is conducted through the Conduct Body. A party does not have a right to question or cross examine another party directly. A party may recommend questions prior to the hearing and during the hearing to the Conduct Body, who will, in their sole discretion, determine the relevancy of the question, and, if relevant, the chairperson may pose the question to the other party. The chairperson has discretion to alter the exact wording of the proposed question. Parties may directly question non-party witnesses or provide proposed questions to the Conduct Body. The Conduct Body may also independently question the parties, witnesses, and/or investigator to illicit relevant information.

- Pertinent records, exhibits and written statements may be accepted as information for consideration by a Conduct Body at the discretion of the chairperson.\textsuperscript{16} If witnesses or parties are not available, the Conduct Body may consider the summary of the individual's investigative interview in lieu of hearing testimony. For hearings involving sexual assault, evidence of the Complainant's sexual history or behavior is not relevant if it is offered to prove that the Complainant engaged in other sexual behavior or to prove the Complainant’s sexual predisposition unless the evidence of specific instances of sexual behavior by the Complainant is offered to show:
  - Prior or subsequent sexual encounters between the Complainant and the Respondent;
  - That a person other than the Respondent was the source of semen, injury, or other physical evidence;

\textsuperscript{15} See footnote 11 regarding support person/advisor.

\textsuperscript{16} Prior to the hearing, Complainant and/or Respondent may submit a written response to the letter containing the findings of the initial investigation. Such written response must be submitted to the chairperson of the Conduct Body at least 48 hours prior to the start of the hearing. The chairperson will promptly provide the response to the Investigator and the other party. The written response may address the letter of findings, but may not introduce new evidence unless such evidence was not known to the drafting party at any point during the initial investigation.
The Complainant made prior false allegation(s) of sexual assault.

Following consideration of all evidence presented, the Conduct Body will issue a decision, based on a majority vote and by a preponderance of evidence, regarding responsibility and, if applicable, recommend sanctions to be imposed by the Conduct Administrator pursuant to the guidelines in the Code of Student Conduct. The Conduct Body’s deliberations, which will be conducted in private, will not be recorded.

Hearing Procedures for Employees and Community Member/Third Party/Campus Visitor

When a UA employee or community member/third party/campus visitor is the Respondent in a Prohibited Conduct investigation, the University’s harassment policy and procedures as described in that policy will be followed. A prompt, fair, impartial and appropriate investigation will be conducted. Neither the Complainant nor Respondent in this situation has the right to have any advisor or other person present during any meetings or interviews or conferences regarding the matter. The Complainant and Respondent will be notified in writing whether the investigation results in a finding of a policy violation. Sanctions imposed will be determined on the basis of the facts of each case and the extent of harm to the Complainant and the University’s interests. A conclusion that Prohibited Conduct has not occurred will end the process, unless the Complainant has the right to appeal, which only exists if the Respondent has an appeal right.

Notification of Findings

Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall be informed concurrently in writing of the outcome of any institutional disciplinary proceeding/process involving Prohibited Conduct allegations. Notwithstanding federal privacy rules regarding students (FERPA), the University is required to disclose in writing to the alleged victim of a crime of violence or a non-forcible sex offense, the final results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the University against a student Respondent who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged Complainant is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such Complainant will be notified. The final results of the disciplinary proceeding involving a student includes the violation committed (UA rules or code sections violated and any essential findings supporting the conclusion) and any sanction that is imposed against the student.

3. Sanctions

While an investigation is pending, a student may be subject to interim sanctions pursuant to the Code of Student Conduct and an employee may be placed on administrative leave. Following a determination of responsibility pursuant to the applicable investigation procedure as discussed above, the University may impose a range of sanctions as identified below. Sanctions imposed will be determined on the basis of the facts of each case and a Respondent’s prior conduct history. Additional details regarding the disciplinary process and potential sanctions may be found in the Code of Student Conduct, Staff Handbook, or Faculty Handbook. Sanctions may include any one, or any combination of the ones, listed below.

- Student as the Respondent
  Sanctions imposed against students are dictated by the Code of Student Conduct. A student found responsible for violation of this Policy is subject to sanctions up to and including expulsion from the University. Lesser disciplinary sanctions include warning, probation, loss of privileges, no contact order, campus ban/no trespass warning from UAPD, residence hall suspension or transfer/expulsion, educational assignment, fines, restitution, community service, University suspension, referral to proper law enforcement authorities for prosecution, or other discretionary... sanction(s) as deemed appropriate by the Office of Student Conduct. A more comprehensive list of potential student sanctions is outlined in the Code of Student Conduct.\textsuperscript{17}

- Faculty as the Respondent
  A determination as set forth above that a violation of this Policy has occurred shall subject a faculty member to appropriate disciplinary action subject to the Faculty Handbook.\textsuperscript{18} Appropriate sanctions will be based on such factors as severity, frequency, and degree of deviation from expectations in this Policy. Possible sanctions may include, but are not limited to, no contact order, verbal counseling, written counseling or warning, official reprimand, mandatory counseling, mandatory attendance at the Employee Assistance Program, educational assignment, fines, restitution, paid or unpaid administrative leave, release from teaching duties, reassignment of responsibilities, loss of ability to travel abroad or apply for sabbatical leaves, ineligibility to receive promotion, suspension of annual merit increase, decrease in salary, suspension, demotion, transfer and/or reassignment of duties, revocation of tenure, termination of employment, campus ban/no trespass warning from UAPD, prohibition on further employment or volunteer activity at the University, loss of University benefits for retirees and referral to proper law enforcement authorities for prosecution.

- Staff as the Respondent
  A determination as set forth above that a violation of this Policy has occurred shall subject a staff member to appropriate disciplinary action pursuant to the Staff Handbook.\textsuperscript{19} The University has adopted a philosophy of progressive discipline. However, one violation of this Policy could result in termination of employment. Appropriate sanctions will be based on such factors as severity, frequency, and degree of deviation from expectations in this Policy. Possible sanctions may include, but are not limited to, no contact order, verbal counseling, written counseling or warning, official reprimand, mandatory counseling, mandatory attendance at the Employee Assistance Program, educational assignment, fines, restitution, paid or unpaid administrative leave, reassignment of responsibilities, ineligibility to receive raise or promotion, suspension of annual merit increase, decrease in salary, suspension, demotion, transfer, termination of employment, campus ban/no trespass warning from UAPD, prohibition on further employment at the University, loss of University benefits for retirees, and referral to proper law enforcement authorities for prosecution.

- Community Member/Third Party/Campus Visitor as the Respondent
  A determination as set forth above that a violation of this Policy has occurred shall subject a community member/third party/campus visitor to appropriate sanctions, which may include, but are not limited to, no contact order, verbal counseling, written counseling or warning, mandatory counseling, educational assignment, fines, restitution, prohibition on employment or volunteer activities at the University, campus ban/no trespass warning from UAPD, ineligibility for programs open to various groups, notification to the entity with which the community member/third party/campus visitor is associated, and referral to proper law enforcement authorities for prosecution.

4. Reviews/Appeals

   Both the Complainant and Respondent have an equitable opportunity for appeal.

   - Student as Respondent—Students may appeal the decision contained in the Title IX Coordinator’s initial letter of findings by requesting a formal hearing as outlined herein. Further, for alleged

Prohibited Conduct incidents involving a violation of the Code of Student Conduct, in circumstances where the Respondent accepts responsibility of the allegations, either party may appeal the Conduct Administrator’s determination of sanctions. Following a hearing, each party has a right to appeal the Conduct Body’s decision with regard to a finding of responsibility and/or the imposed sanctions. The process and timing for the appeal is outlined in the Code of Student Conduct, except as modified below:

- Appeals by Complainants: In matters involving allegations of Prohibited Conduct, Complainant’s request for a review of sanction(s) by the Review Board may result in a decision from the Vice President of Student Affairs or designee to reduce, uphold, or increase the sanction(s).
- Employee or Community Member/Third Party/Campus Visitor as Respondent—To the extent the University’s disciplinary process involving an employee or community member/third party/campus visitor would ever permit an appeal for the Respondent, the same appeal rights would be afforded the Complainant.

H. ACCOMMODATIONS, INTERIM MEASURES AND SUPPORT SERVICES

For all reports of Prohibited Conduct, the University will take prompt and reasonable action to provide support to all parties involved. A Complainant is not required to file a formal complaint, report the incident to law enforcement, or pursue criminal charges to receive assistance with University resources, which includes assistance with interim measures from either the Title IX Coordinator or, if the Complainant desires strict confidentiality, from the WGRC Victim Advocate. The need for University resources varies based on the facts of the specific incident and the individual’s needs. The Title IX Coordinator and/or WGRC Victim Advocate may take protective action, including accommodations, for the Complainant upon the Complainant’s request and if such action is reasonably available. In addition to what is set forth herein, other interim measures may be available based on specific circumstances. Moreover, the University may take action without a request from either party if the University determines doing so is in the best interests of a student or the University community. The Title IX Coordinator should be contacted for additional information, or if strict confidentiality is desired, the WGRC Victim Advocate. Below are some examples of resources that may typically be provided following notice of a complaint of Prohibited Conduct:

I. RETALIATION

The University of Alabama prohibits retaliation by its employees, students, or agents against an individual who exercises their rights pursuant to any provision of Title IX, Title VII, the Campus SaVE Act, or this Policy. The University encourages students, faculty, and staff to express freely, responsibly, and in an orderly way opinions and feelings about any problem or complaint of Prohibited Conduct, illegal discrimination or harassment. Retaliation against persons who in good faith oppose or complain about Prohibited Conduct, illegal discrimination or harassment is prohibited. Retaliation is any action that has the effect of punishing a person for engaging in a legally protected activity, such as alleging Prohibited Conduct, harassment, or illegal discrimination, filing a complaint, assisting or participating in an investigation of such complaint, or advocating for others’ Title IX or Title VII rights. Examples of retaliatory actions could include suspension, demotion, or termination in the employment context; lowering a grade or dismissing a student from a program; or maliciously and purposefully interfering with, threatening, or damaging the academic or professional career of another individual before, during or after the investigation and resolution of a report of conduct prohibited by this Policy. This Policy prohibits retaliation in the form of harassment, intimidation, threats, or coercion, or in the form of any materially adverse harm that would dissuade a reasonable student, employee, or third party from filing a complaint or participating in a Prohibited Conduct related investigation.

Any employee or student who retaliates against an individual in violation of the law and/or this Policy is subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination from employment or dismissal as a student from the University.

J. DISHONEST, MALICIOUS, OR FRIVOLOUS ACCUSATIONS

A complaint of alleged Prohibited Conduct may not be substantiated, but a lack of corroborating evidence should not discourage a person from reporting an alleged incident and seeking relief under this Policy. All reports should be made in good faith, meaning the individual making the report has a reasonable belief that the reported statements are true and violate University policy.

A bad faith report is one that is intentionally dishonest, frivolous, or malicious. When a report is made in bad faith, the bad faith report may deter other individuals from filing good faith reports, unnecessarily expend University and law enforcement resources, distract University and law enforcement officials from investigating good faith reports, and cause harm to the alleged accused and the community. It is a violation of this Policy to report intentionally dishonest, frivolous, or malicious allegations of Prohibited Conduct. If a complaint is brought in bad faith as demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence, disciplinary action may be taken against the person making the complaint. In addition to violating this Policy, a person filing a bad faith report of Prohibited Conduct may be in violation of other University policies or state law.

K. CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS

University disciplinary proceedings may be instituted against a student cited for a violation of a law that is also a violation of this Policy, the Code of Student Conduct, or other campus policies if both violations result from the same factual situation, without regard to the pendency of civil litigation in court or criminal arrest and prosecution. Proceedings under this Policy may be carried out prior to, simultaneously with, or following civil or criminal proceedings off-campus.

1. Reporting to Law Enforcement and Interplay with the Title IX Investigation

In addition to being forbidden by this Policy, Prohibited Conduct may be a violation of federal or state criminal law. (See Section C above for the text of related state or federal criminal offenses such as rape, fondling, incest, sexual abuse, domestic/dating violence, and stalking.) The University encourages individuals to immediately report criminal activity to UAPD or local law enforcement. Immediate reporting of crimes greatly enhances law enforcement’s ability to collect and maintain evidence. For information about pursuing a criminal complaint, please contact UAPD at (205) 348-5454. The Title IX Coordinator, Designated Responsible Reporting Official, or WGRC may provide assistance or support to an individual voluntarily choosing to file a criminal complaint.

The standard of proof with regard to criminal offenses (proof beyond a reasonable doubt) is different from the University’s preponderance of the evidence standard, which applies to alleged violations of this Policy. Conduct may be considered a violation of this Policy even if a determination is made that criminal charges are not warranted. Therefore, findings by law enforcement officials are not final conclusions of whether the alleged conduct violates University policy.

Individuals may report Prohibited Conduct to UAPD without making a formal criminal complaint. Individuals may and are encouraged to report alleged criminal Prohibited Conduct to UAPD or local law enforcement prior to making a formal University complaint.

When a complaint is received by a UAPD officer that involves a student, employee, or on-campus activity, a UAPD official will notify the Title IX Coordinator regarding individuals involved in the alleged incident and any immediate measures taken by law enforcement. The University Title IX investigation may be on hold for a short time (generally, one to two weeks) while law enforcement conducts initial criminal fact-finding measures. All involved parties have a right to appropriate and reasonably available interim measures pending the initial criminal investigation. Following the initial criminal fact-finding stage, the University will begin its internal Title IX investigation, which is independent of the criminal investigation. During the investigation process, the Title IX Coordinator will communicate with law enforcement and allow deference to the criminal investigation.

Pursuant to the University’s confidentiality policy, which is discussed above, UAPD and the Tuscaloosa County Violent Crimes Task Force are considered “need to know” officials who may require information about incidents of alleged Prohibited Conduct for reasons of community safety. Consistent with applicable privacy laws, the Title IX Coordinator may share statements, evidence, or other information gathered during the University’s investigation with these law enforcement entities.

2. Procedures Followed After A Report Of A Sexual Offense Is Made To UAPD

When a sexual assault is investigated, the Complainant may be unprepared for the lengthy, public process of criminally pursuing a Respondent. UA Police and other involved officers respect the Complainant’s feelings, but must also observe due process of law. The following outline of a sexual assault investigation can help Complainants understand the process of the investigation. This outline may vary based on the individual circumstances of a particular case. Also, this process of a criminal investigation is separate and apart from a Title IX investigation and/or Code of Student Conduct process discussed herein.

Immediate Response to Report: After an alleged sexual assault has occurred and the Complainant contacts University police, patrol officers will respond to the Complainant, ensure the Complainant’s well-being, and will, with the Complainant’s consent, contact a Victim Advocate from the WGRC or the District Attorney’s Victim Services Office. The Victim Advocate may assist the Complainant during the investigation. The officers will help the Complainant arrange medical care at the emergency room where medical staff will provide medical intervention to the Complainant, treat injuries and potential sexually transmitted infections, and/or preserve physical evidence of the assault. The Victim Advocate is available to accompany the Complainant to the hospital and is available to provide counseling and/or support services as necessary at the hospital and on an ongoing basis throughout the investigation and beyond.

- The responding patrol officers, after receiving from the Complainant a brief description of what allegedly happened, will inform the appropriate police units and investigators. Officers will secure the crime scene and interview any witnesses. Responding investigators will arrive to identify and preserve evidence at the crime scene and conduct additional interviews if necessary.

- When ready, the Complainant must provide a detailed statement of the alleged assault to the investigators. The WGRC Victim Advocate or a District Attorney Victim Services Officer may be present.

- Officers may ask the Complainant to try and identify the suspect from a photo or physical lineup. Investigators must gather enough evidence to establish “probable cause,” i.e., legal reason to arrest the suspect. When the evidence is ready, the investigators and Complainant will appear to meet with a magistrate to ask for a warrant allowing the suspect’s arrest. If a warrant is granted, the suspect can be arrested and jailed. The suspect may not spend all of the time before the trial in custody; when appropriate, bail/bond can be provided for the defendant.

- There may be several judicial proceedings before the actual trial. For instance, a ‘preliminary hearing’ may be held. This hearing, which is conducted before a judge, may require the Complainant to answer questions from the prosecuting attorneys and the defendant’s attorney. The Complainant may also be asked to appear before the Grand Jury when it convenes to determine if the defendant is to be indicted. If the Grand Jury issues a ‘True Bill,’ which indicates sufficient evidence was heard to indict the accused, a trial will be scheduled.

- The trial will typically be held in the Tuscaloosa County Courthouse in downtown Tuscaloosa. (With respect to sexual assaults in the Gadsden Center, the trial will typically be held in the Etowah County Courthouse located in Gadsden.) Sexual assault trials generally involve testimony from the Complainant, the police investigators, the emergency-room personnel, and other witnesses. If the accused defendant is found to be guilty of the crime, the judge will set the term of punishment.

3. Importance of Taking Steps to Preserve Evidence

If an incident of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking occurs, it is important to preserve evidence. In addition to assisting with any University investigation, preservation of evidence helps allow a successful criminal prosecution to remain an option.

a. Special considerations for sexual assault victims: In addition to care of obvious injuries, medical attention is needed to protect the Complainant from sexually transmitted diseases and/or provide information about pregnancy. Any person sexually assaulted who might consider taking legal action against the alleged Respondent needs to receive medical care and take steps to preserve evidence at a reputable emergency room immediately. If the sexual assault occurred in Tuscaloosa, such care can be obtained at DCH Regional Medical Center, adjacent to the university campus, or at Northport Hospital-DCH.\(^{36}\) The DCH emergency room doctors are the only area physicians who give medical exams in which evidence of sexual assault can be obtained and preserved for legal action. Without this evidence, the chances for successful prosecution are minimized. Complainants should have the exam as soon as possible. They will need a change of clothes; the clothes worn during the assault will be kept as evidence. If a Complainant already changed clothes, they should bring along any articles that may have blood, semen, or other forensic evidence on them. In order to preserve physical evidence of the assault, Complainants should not change clothes, bathe, douche, or use the bathroom before seeking medical care. Forensic examinations are available free of charge to sexual assault victims at the DCH Regional Medical Center.

b. Special considerations for domestic violence, dating violence or stalking victims: Evidence of violence, such as bruising or other visible injuries, following an incident of domestic or dating violence should be documented by taking a photograph. Evidence of stalking including any communication, such as written notes, voice mail or other electronic communications should be saved and not altered in any way.

L. PREVENTION, EDUCATION, AND AWARENESS

The University of Alabama is committed to providing preventive, informative, and supportive programming for all members of the University community. Among other things, the University’s comprehensive education and awareness plan consists of the following: implementation of this Policy; educational programming that addresses all aspects of Prohibited Conduct; the University’s response to allegations of Prohibited Conduct; and University-provided support systems to remediate the effects of Prohibited Conduct.

The objectives of the comprehensive education and awareness plan are to:

\(^{36}\) Complainants in Gadsden may receive medical care at Riverview Regional Medical Center.
• Widely disseminate this Policy to the University community through email communications, publications, websites, training programs, and other appropriate channels of communication.
• Identify conduct that is considered a violation of this Policy by defining sexual harassment, sexual assault, (including consent), sexual contact & sexual exploitation, rape and other sexual offenses, intimate partner (dating/domestic) violence, and stalking (see Definitions in Section C above).
• Create multiple reporting options and inform students, employees, and community members of those options to encourage reporting.
• Educate students, employees, and community members about University disciplinary procedures.
• Inform students, employees, and community members of available University resources.
• Provide safe and positive options for bystander intervention.
• Provide information regarding risk reduction and the warning signs of abusive behaviors and how to avoid potential attacks.

Examples of prevention, education, and awareness programs offered by the University include:

1. Primary Prevention, Education, and Awareness Programs: The following prevention and awareness programs collectively communicate the University’s prohibition against Prohibited Conduct (defined in Section C), describe safe and positive options for bystander intervention, provide information on risk reduction, and discuss other relevant matters contained within the this Policy for new students and employees.

   a. New Student Training—All students who are new to the University are required to complete an online training program, Haven, that discusses sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. This program focuses on providing information regarding University policy, procedures, and resources and includes bystander intervention skills and confidence-building strategies.

   b. Annual Employee Training—All new employees are required to complete training addressing sexual and other forms of illegal harassment and University policies with regard to reporting, and all employees receive additional training on an annual basis. In addition, potential members of a Conduct Body and investigators handling matters under this Policy are trained on issues specific to handling Prohibited Conduct matters.

   c. Student Housing and Residential Communities Training—Annual training is provided to student HRC employees (Resident Advisors and Community Advisors) that focuses on University policies, procedures, and resources regarding Prohibited Conduct and addresses unique situations relevant to HRC employees who are also students.

2. Ongoing Prevention, Education, and Awareness Programs: Multiple departments across campus provide ongoing awareness, bystander intervention, and prevention campaigns for the campus community. These include but are not limited to:

   a. Email letter to the Campus Community—In the fall and spring semesters as well as the summer term, the President sends an email to students, faculty, and staff advising of reporting channels for sexual harassment or sexual violence (sexual assault, domestic/dating violence and stalking), resources and support (safety planning, counseling services, legal services, academic advocacy), and education and training.

   b. Safer Living Guide—At Bama Bound student orientation, all incoming students are made aware of the Safer Living Guide, which is published and available to all students and employees in multiple facilities on campus as well as on-line at http://police.ua.edu/safer-living-guide-2-2/. Among other things, this guide describes safe and positive options for bystander intervention, and identifies measures a person can take to decrease his/her chances of becoming a victim of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking and reducing the risk of drug-induced sexual assaults while recognizing that only those who commit sexual violence are responsible for those actions.

i. Some safe and positive options for bystander intervention include:

- Making up an excuse to get the individual out of a potentially dangerous situation.
- Letting a friend or co-worker know that an individual’s actions may lead to serious consequences;
- Never leaving an individual’s side, despite the efforts of someone to get that individual alone or away from you;
- Using a group of friends to remind someone behaving inappropriately that their behavior should be respectful;
- Taking steps to curb someone’s use of alcohol before problems occur;
- Calling the authorities when the situation warrants; and,
- Understanding how to safely implement the choice. Safety is paramount in active bystander intervention. Usually, intervening in a group is safer than intervening individually. Also, choosing a method of intervention that de-escalates the situation is safer than attempting a confrontation. However, there is no single rule that can account for every situation.

ii. Common sense, situational awareness, and trusting one’s instincts will reduce the risk of sexual assault. The tips below are provided to help students decrease the potential chance of sexual assault:

- If you consume alcohol, do so in moderation.
- Do not leave your beverage unattended or accept a drink from an open container.
- When you are with someone, communicate clearly to ensure he or she knows your limits and/or expectations from the beginning. Both verbal and nonverbal (body language) communication can be used to ensure the message is understood.
- If you go on a date with someone you do not know very well, tell a close friend what your plans are.
- You have the right to say “No” even if you first say “Yes,” and then change your mind; have had sex with this partner before; have been kissing or “making out”; or are wearing what is perceived to be “provocative” clothing.
- Always have extra money to get home. Have a plan for someone you can call if you need help.
- If you feel uncomfortable, scared, or pressured, say “Stop it” or leave and call for help.
- When you go to a party, go with a group of friends. Arrive together, watch out for each other and leave together.
- Be aware of your surroundings at all times.
- If possible, avoid being isolated with a person you do not know or trust.
- Travel with a friend or in a group.
- Walk only in lighted areas after dark.
- Avoid walking alone after dark or during late hours.
- Keep the doors to homes, apartments, and cars locked.
- Know where phones are located.
- Download and utilize the Rave Guardian Safety App available at mybama.ua.edu.
c. The UACT website (www.ua.edu/uact): This website contains information on how to contact individuals to make a report of Prohibited Conduct as well as bystander intervention training materials designed to help students learn techniques/advice on how to be an effective bystander.

d. Women and Gender Resource Center (WGRC): Campus-wide programs coordinated by the WGRC are designed to increase awareness about sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, and stalking as well as providing information on victim services available on campus. The programming may also include topics relating to violence prevention and bystander intervention behavior. (For example, WGRC offers Bystander Intervention Panels as part of its Dating and Domestic Violence Awareness Month programming, where students provide advice on how to interrupt and end dating violence.) Informational brochures and pamphlets focusing on interpersonal violence are available for the University community. This information includes definitions of the various types of interpersonal violence, information about prevalence, options for reporting, services available to victims, and information on the legal and judicial process. Additional information packets are available for victims of interpersonal violence as well as their friends and family.

The Frances S. Summersell Library is part of the UA library system and is located in the WGRC. The library provides a variety of resources including DVDs and books, which are available for checkout and/or review by students, faculty, and staff of the University of Alabama. Many resources are available on the topics of sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, and stalking.

Some of the more noted educational programs and outreach services offered by the WGRC include:

   i. Peer Education and Leadership: The WGRC staff engages students in peer education and leadership programs to address interpersonal violence. Through training, peer educators gain a clear understanding of the dynamics of interpersonal violence and the resources available to address the issues. After receiving training, students apply that knowledge to a peer education model in which they promote healthy relationships, risk reduction, and assist in providing programs for students and the campus community about interpersonal violence and how victims can access campus services. Peer education and leadership is implemented through a number of models, including Unscripted, a peer theater troupe, composed of a diverse group of students who apply interactive and improvisational theatre to contemporary scenarios of interpersonal violence which they perform for UA classes and organizations to generate dialogue regarding warning signs of abuse, bystander behavior, and campus resources. Other models include the WGRC Student Leadership Council and Safe Sisters, who are sorority women trained on the issues of interpersonal violence and serve as peer educators for their chapter.

   ii. Interpersonal Violence/Speakers Bureau: The WGRC staff is available to serve as speakers to present programs on a wide variety of issues including interpersonal violence, risk reduction, healthy relationships, and leadership. Presentations can take place on or off of campus for classes, organizations, clubs, and other groups. Presentations can be adapted to the specific needs of an organization.

   iii. Harbor: The purpose of Harbor is to create safe places throughout campus where victims of interpersonal violence can go to receive assistance. Through the training, faculty and staff gain insight and sensitivity to the issues of dating/domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. Harbor trainings last about two hours and can be incorporated into a single staff meeting or broken into components to accommodate participant schedules.

   iv. Campus Anti-Violence Task Force: The WGRC established a Campus Anti-Violence Task Force (CAFT) to provide a coordinated community response to violence. The goal of the Task Force is to be a multi-disciplinary, diverse, and inclusive group of campus and community partners who provide a unified approach to combat violence on campus.
v. Domestic Violence Awareness Month and Sexual Assault Awareness Month: The WGRC staff coordinates various campaigns for Domestic Violence Awareness Month in October and Sexual Assault Awareness Month in April of every year. Activities both at the university and in the community include initiatives such as the Clothesline Project, These Hands Don’t Hurt, information displays, rallies and candlelight vigils, the purple and teal awareness ribbon campaigns, and art exhibits designed to educate our community about interpersonal violence, such as the Wounded Heart display.

d. Department of Health Promotion and Wellness: The Department of Health Promotion and Wellness in the Student Health Center provides education and training opportunities via the Project Health Ambassadors and Health Hut. The Health Ambassadors provide programming in residence halls. Health Hut Interns engage visitors with games, activities, and conversations aimed at increasing student awareness about health issues and behaviors that directly affect them, increase student knowledge about healthy behaviors and making healthy choices, and reduce the barriers students perceive to improving their health. While this group provides a variety of programming, noted programming concerning Prohibited Conduct occurs during Sexual Responsibility Week, Sexual Assault Awareness Month, and Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

c. University of Alabama Police Department: UAPD Community Oriented Police program and other areas within UAPD provide Prohibited Conduct awareness, education, and prevention/risk reduction presentations to the University community throughout the year.

f. The Title IX Office provides targeted education and awareness programs for specific groups on campus based on requests by the group or organization and/or based on reporting trends.

g. Additional departments/groups on campus provide training to specific groups or the University community. These departments include, but are not limited to: Safe Zone; Fraternity & Sorority Life; Office of Student Conduct; The SOURCE/Office of Student Involvement; Intercollegiate Athletics; Housing and Residential Communities; University of Alabama School of Law – Domestic Violence Law Clinic; Office of Counsel; and Human Resources Learning & Development.

M. ACADEMIC FREEDOM & SEXUAL HARASSMENT/HOSTILE ENVIRONMENT

In cases of alleged prohibited sexual misconduct, the protections of the First Amendment must be considered if issues of speech or artistic expression are involved. Free speech rights apply in the classroom and in all other educational programs and activities of public institutions, and First Amendment rights apply to the speech of students and employees. Great care must be taken not to inhibit open discussion, academic debate, and expression of personal opinion, particularly in the classroom. Nonetheless, speech or conduct of a harassing, sexual, or hostile nature that occurs in the context of educational instruction may exceed the protections of academic freedom and constitute prohibited harassment if it meets the definition of sexual misconduct and (1) is reasonably regarded as non-professorial speech (i.e. advances a personal interest of the student or faculty member as opposed to furthering the learning process or legitimate objectives of the course), or (2) lacks an accepted pedagogical purpose or is not germane to the academic subject matter.
